And so, I was a cat after all. No matter when it came, I was always prepared. The seventh time, the siren sounded down the alley. At first soft, growing louder with each pass. Behind was a yard, bare dirt, with oil-slicked boards stacked criss-crossed. More eye-catching was the large tree, thick-armed, with a big family of squirrels living in its tall branches. From there, my house at the end of the block could also be seen, sitting stoutly like a cat loaf., 2023
