ABOUT THE PRESENTATION

Hauser & Wirth returns to Art Basel Miami Beach this year with a dynamic selection of contemporary and historical works presented in dialogue. Reflecting the exuberant spirit of the gallery's thriving program and ongoing commitment to magnifying a diverse array of voices, this year's booth (A40) will foreground exciting new work by artists who have joined the roster this year, such as Firelei Báez, Catherine Goodman and Flora Yukhnovich. The booth will also highlight unique works by Charles Gaines and Gary Simmons, both of whom will have major solo museum exhibitions on view in Miami during the fair, as well as important works by Philip Guston, Luchita Hurtado and Mike Kelley, among others.
